

COURSE ON INTERCULTURAL MEDIATION

to address trafficking of human beings

1st Session :

- Introduction to Intercultural Mediation
- Definition and areas of engagement
- Profiles and needs of migrating people

2nd Session :

- Human trafficking (¿What is it? ¿What forms of trafficking exist? ¿How can it be detected? )
- Trafficking of women in Spain and Catalonia
- Proposals for social intervention by women who have suffered trafficking.

3d Session :

- Psychological processes to consider in Intercultural Mediation.
- Psychological processes in migrating women.
- Psychological processes related to the experience of being trafficked.

4th Session :

- National and international stakeholders addressing trafficking.
- Participatory Action Research (PAR) as a methodology and a strategy to address trafficking of human beings.

Option 1 : JUNE 14, 16, 21, 23 6 to 8 pm

Option 2: JUNE 15, 17, 22, 25 4 to 6 pm

Aula 37 Facultat de Psicologia, Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona

Email cursomediacion2010@gmail.com

www.mipgroup.es Tel: 646644983

Professor: Helga Flamtermesky

Supported by:

mip*group
innovación en programas sociales

Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona
Departament de Psicologia Social

 Obra Social
Fundació "la Caixa"